

the data arrive looking like noise, but three numbers stand out turn the signal up: three peaks break away from the noise each peak carries a clue: it singles out one group put two clues together, point by point, and the groups sort themselves out

